

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

This is part of the foundation of a democracy. The public must be allowed to hear the most diverse points of view and intelligent, meaningful news and entertainment. This is being lost due to the consolidation in the media.